VANDIVER AGAINST MILITARY BARRACKS.

Missouri Congressman Sounds Note of Warning on Proposed Philippine Policy.

COMPARED TO THAT OF KINGS.

Presents List of Big Salaries to Support the Claim of Wanton Extravagance in the Colonial Scheme.

The Republic Bureau.

14th St. and Pennsylvania Ave.

Washington, Jan. 21.—During the debate on the item of $500,000 for permanent military barracks at Manila, Representative Vandiver of Missouri addressed the House briefly. He gave some interesting figures of salaries paid Republican colonial officials and his comments on the Philippine situation were well received. Mr. Vandiver said:

"It appears from this bill that we are to have a permanent military establishment located over there, military barracks and officers-costing, to begin with a half mil-Hon dollars; now much it will cost before it is finished no man can tell; how much before peace is fully established and our authority fully accepted no man can meas

"We have heard much of the Govern ment's policy in the Philippines, which bears a striking resemblance to the policy of George III in the American Colonies. It is not a permanent policy based on established principles. It is not founded on those eterhal laws of justice which our forefathers discovered and affirmed for themselves and their posterity. It is merely a tenta-tive, hesitating and uncertan mode of procedure from day to day, from week to week and year by year, not guided by any great precepts of wisdom or forethought, but only by the insane desire for more power, more patronage, more land, more gold and more of that ephemeral and illusive phantom, the glory of nations.

the other side of the chamber are never willing to discuss the question and face the responsibility as statesmen should do. Aye, gentlemen, you run away from the issue. You cover it up with honeyed phrases; you exalt it to the skies and hang it upon the rainbow. Then when we ask you to define it and defend it, you take refuge in those very same metaphors of mist and doubt with which Kings and tyrants in all ages have justified their conquest of weaker nations and inferior races. You are doing it because of your love for them. Likewise George III loved his Colonies, taxed them without consent and refused them self-gov ernment. You are doing it because you have a mission in the world. They are unable taken a contract to do it for them.

"If you will be honest and frank with us you will admit that you have but two rea sons, and they are partisan and mercenary. You think the jingo sentiment of the country has not yet cooled down and the doctrine of expansion is the keynote of com-mercialism, while the business of governing district colonies is profitable to the party in power. The patronage is immense, and you are not willing to give it us. Mr. Gaines said that the information had been given him in confidence and that if he were to divuige the names of those who had given it to him, they would lose their heads. This reply elicited jeers from the Republican side.

Mr. Dinsmore of Arkansas also spoke in opposition to the administration's Philippine policy. He insisted that we should not turn our backs upon the glorious traditions of the past and enter upon a colonial policy.

PHILIPPINE TARIFF CONSIDERED Measure Was Made Unfinished Business-Debated for Hours.

Washington, Jan. 21 .- For nearly three hours to-day the Senate had under consideration the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business and probably will hold that position of pref-erence until it shall have been voted on finally.

The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free-hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure and urged strongly its enactment into law at an early date.

urged strongly its enactment into law at an early date.

He explained, with some minuteness the necessity for the legislation embodied in the bill, and concluded with an appeal to the Senate and to Congress to deal with questions relating to the Philippines as they might arise and to keep clear of vague words and vaguer promises which were likely to be misinterpreted and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins, of Utah, delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority's substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos so soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon, of Geargia, sharply criticised the Secretary of War for an alleged viola-tion of the law in issuing an order per-mitting vessels flying a foreign flag to par-ticipate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

Good Things Bad Place

Pies, puddings, cake and goodies of all gorts (missionaries excepted) are intended for human use, but such good things should not be put in a bad stomach. They are nearly always made up of nourishing articles, such as milk, sugar, butter, flour. etc., etc., but the combinations are too hard for any but healthy stomachs to digest.

You must use carefully selected food if you are a little below par, and the sooner you do this the sooner your stomach will heal up and get strong again, so that you can eat whatever pleases the appetite.

Don't be a crank and think you can only drink hot water and eat white bread.

Use Grape-Nuts breakfast food with some rich cream, and you will discover the food will agree with the weakest stomach and supply the highest form of nourishment, pre-digested and ready for quick change into good, rich blood.

Strength (nerve strength) comes from feeding on Grape-Nuts. There's a reason. Try it and prove for yourself.

It seems good to be perfectly well and feel well fed.

Mrs. Montgomery makes the nineteenth nember of the board, leaving only two vacancies to be filled in order to complete the body. It is believed that the entire board will have been appointed before the adjournment of the commission. Mrs. Montgomery is a daughter of John H. Phelps, former member of Congress from this State and former Governor of Missouri. Before her marriage Miss Phelps was the mistress of the gubernatorial mansion at Jefferson City during the time of her father's incumbency. She resided at Spring-field, Mo., before her marriage, and removed to the Pacific Coast, so that her appointment will come as a welcome surprise to the many friends in her native State, as well as to those friends whom she has made in her later home.

Commissioners Betts, Scott, Lindsay and

McBride will outline the duties of the Board of Lady Managers. The report will be presented at the April session of the commis-sion. The Committee on Rules will meet in New York City some time between this meeting of the commission and the next meeting of the commission and the next session.

An invitation from the Exposition Company to appoint two of the Commissioners to serve on the World's Fair Commission which is to be sent abroad to exploit the Exposition among foreign Governments was declined for the reason that none of the National Commissioners can take the time 1.cm their individual business pursuits necessary to the tripto Europe. The commission has, on the other hand, asked the Exposition Company to furnish Secretary Flory the proper blanks upon which the regular monthly reports of the Exposition's finances are made to the Secretary of State.

Owing to the absence from the present session of Commissioner Glynn of New York. Commissioner McBride of Oregon, the proposed trip to Hot Springs as the guests of General Passenger Agent H. C. Townsend of the Missouri Pacific Railway, has been abandoned until April, when the commission assembles again in this city. The commission took a recess last evening until 10 o'clock this morning.

NO BOYCOTT ON WORLD'S FAIR. National Building Trades' Council

Condemns Action of Central Body

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 21.-The National Building Trades Council closed its fifth annual convention here to-day. Resolutions were adopted condemning the action of the Central Trades and Labor Unions of St. Louis in issuing a boycott against the Louis-iana Purchase Exposition. EDWARD L. SMYTH Of St. Louis, re-elected president of the Na tional Building Trades Council, which closed yesterday at Worcester, Mass.

standing on the question of the skilled labor to be employed by the Exposition authorities.

In effect this agreement was that the local organization of the building trades did not countenance any effort to coerce the Exposition management into employing skilled labor that was not available for the successful construction of the Fair. The Grounds and Buildings Committee, it is understood, gave the building trades representatives at that meeting assurance that the superiority of union artisanship was recognized in the building trade branches, and to the end that this kind of labor would be employed wherever it could be best utilized in the construction work.

The credit for bringing about the understanding has been given to Herman Steinbiss, national secretary of the Building Trades Council, who is also the union labor member of the Grounds and Buildings Committee of the Exposition. An invitation extended recently by the Central Trades and Labor Assembly to the Building Trades Council to unite on the proposed boycott, was declined by the local organization of the building trades, with previous knowledge of the position, the national body has taken in its convention.

Edward L. Smyth, who was re-elected president of the National Building Trades Council, is well known in St. Louis labor circles and is the youngest executive the organization ever elected.

Mr. Smyth has been a resident of St. Louis for several years. He is a journey-man plasterer and has held the office of secretary of Plasterers' Union No. 3 of the Operative Plasterers' International Association.

WOMAN'S MEMORIAL TO BE A BUILDING.

mittee Undecided Between Club and Hall of Philanthropy.

Trip to Country Club Delayed by a Broken Wire-Growth of Women's Organizations in Southwest.

The Louisiana Purchase States Committee will meet at the Wednesday Club again this morning, hoping to decide the nature of the memorial to be erected at the World's Fair. That it will be a building is almost certain, but the members seem to be about equally divided in favor of a hall of philanthropy and a women's club building.

Mrs. Henry W. Ellot, has been given entire charge of the programme for the celebration, with power to appoint the various committees necessary. The three ideas for the memorial were discussed yesterday morning, after which the ladies departed for the Country Club, where the Wednesday Club entertained them at luncheon

The trip from the Wednesday Clubrooms in the Young Men's Christian Association building to the Country Club at Clayton was of a much more exciting nature than anticipated. The members of the Louisiana Purchase States Committee and the ladies of the Wednesday Club boarded special cars at Cook and Grand avenues. Shortly after the cars turned onto the Clayton line the trolley wire broke and the cars were stalled. For about an hour and half, with the cars growing unpleasantly cold and the ladies hungry, the power was turned off. The wire was finally repaired and the women continued their journey without further mishaps.

At 3 o'clock luncheon was served at the Country Club and several impromptu specches followed. It was on the original programme was abandoned. In returning the ladies should visit the World's Fair programme was abondoned. In returning from the Country Club the cars went around the Forest Park loop, and the visitors got a glimpse of the Lindell pavilion and coming down Skinker road they saw the fence inclosing the World's Pair site, so that part of the programme was partially carried out despite the delay occasioned by the broken trolley wire.

Favors Hall of Philanthropy. At the morning meeting in the Wednes-day Club parlors, Miss Mary Perry ap-At the morning meeting in the Wednesday Club parlors, Miss Mary Perry appeared to answer questions regarding her suggestion that the memorial be a hall of philanthropy. She gave a general outline of her plan for this building, showing the benefits of the building over those of a women's building. She said: "Sentiment seems to favor a clubhouse, as it is argued that it would appeal to federated club women, but in the East women favor the idea of philanthropy, and I think a hall of philanthropy, and I think a hall of philanthropy would meet with more favor than a clubhouse. There is talk of a women's building at the World's Fair. If the hall of philanthropy takes the place of the women's building, it is probable that the World's Fair Directors will see their way clear to help us financially and the city may furnish us with a site."

Following the presentation of the idea of the hall of philanthropy, the club building and the proposed monument, illustrating the artistic, rather than the commercial, were discussed, and the matter left undecided till this morning. A programme for the celebration of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at the World's Fair was adopted. It includes responses from the various States included in the Louisiana Purchase, and entertainments for the evenings. The celebration is to last two days.

At the Country Club Mrs. Philip N. Moore, chairman of the Louisiana Purchase States Committee, made a short address, outlining the work done by the committee. She informed the club of the nature of the programme, which had been decided upon for the celebration.

Mrs. C. W. Wells of Minneapolls, originator of the plan for a celebration of women's clubs at the World's Fair, thanked the members of the Wednesday Club for their hospitality. She said: "The only thing that I have found inhospitable in St. Louis has been the weather."

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Tex., told of the growth of clubs in Texas. Four years ago there were only thirteen clubs in the State and now there are 130. The library organizations, she said, have grown wonderfully. In the same period the libraries have increased from six to fifty-two. She said: "We were able to secure the passage by the Legislature of a bill appropriating money for a women's building at the State University."

Mrs. Theodore M. Harding of Canon City, Colo., said: "I feel like an interloper, as I missed being left out of the Louisiana Purchase by only two blocks. As you know, not all of the State of Colorado was included in the purchase, and I live only two blocks from the Arkansas River and so two blocks inside the Louisiana Purchase."

Mrs. Harding gave a general idea of the way the clubs of Colorado have grown and the work they are doing.

Mrs. James L. Blair said: "The Ladies' Committee have as yet had nothing to do. but it is hoped after the March meeting our work will be outlined. The World's Fair Committee is like a father with his first child, they don't know what to do with us."

Working on Plans.

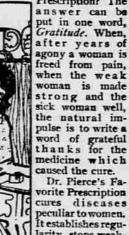

The Republic Bureau, 14th St. and Pentsylvania Ave. Washington, Jan. 21.—An important announcement was made to-day in regard to the Philippines participation in the World's Fair. John Barrett, Commissioner General for Asia, after a conference with War Department officials, including Colonel Ed-wards, Chief of the Insular Bureau, stated The Republic correspondent that it was definitely decided that $250,000 will be expended on a creditable and comprehensive exhibit from the Philippines at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1903. Last summer Mr. Barrett, at the request of Secretary Root, prepared a memorandum outlining carefully the plan and cost of a worthy Philippine exhibit. This memo randum was forwarded to Governor Tatt with recommendations that he and his Cabinet should take such action as seemed best. As all the facilities are at the disposal of the Philippine government, and as the United States transport service will be available to bring over the exhibits free, this appropriation, it is believed, will be ample to erect a special building, if necessary, and to make an exhibit that would be of great interest and value.

The decision of the Philippine government to expend a quarter of a million dollars will also have a good effect upon the action of other Asiatic countries like China, Japan, Korea, Slam and India.

Plans Changed So as to Permit More Buildings in the Picture.

Changes in the Art building, the United States Government Building and the semicircular treatment of Art Hill, overlooking the grand basin of the World's Fair, were announced yesterday. Instead of a peristyle swinging around the curving sweep of Art Hill, which has been so much admired, a festival pavilion and two cafe kiosks will take its place.

A decorative balustrade will connect these three points. The festival hall, circular in form, is to occupy the center of the balustrade effect. The klosks will be placed at the ends of the semicircle. The cascades will gush from under the circular of buildngs.
The Art building has been moved back

150 feet from its original position. This structure has been materially changed. It will now consist of three pavilions, forming a parallelogram, 83) feet by 450 feet. According to the plan of Chief Ives of the Art Department, the center of these pavilions is to contain the international court of sculpture, the United States section and the loan collection. The two side pavilions will be devoted to foreign exhibits. The side pavilions will open on a broad court, which is to be enriched with sculptures, pergolas, trees, vines and other natural effects. 150 feet from its original position. This
